

ACT is a recipient of funds from the UNITED ARTS COUNCIL OF PUGET SOUND.

Under the diligent direction of Edward A. Rauscher, UAC president, and D. E. Skinner, campaign chairman, UNITED ARTS COUNCIL has gathered essential financial support of the Seattle. Last year over $253,000 was received from over 170 firms; this year the gifts exceeded that total. Business has come to realize that a vital cultural life is an invaluable asset to a healthy urban climate, and has given increased support to the arts community through this united giving concept.

The UAC benefits these six principal non-profit organizations: A CONTEMPORARY THEATRE (ACT), THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST BALLET ASSOCIATION, THE SEATTLE ART MUSEUM, THE SEATTLE OPERA ASSOCIATION, THE SEATTLE REPERTORY THEATRE, THE SEATTLE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA. These organizations will continue to make necessary solicitations of individuals, but will no longer solicit from businesses and firms contributing to UNITED ARTS COUNCIL.

ACT applauds those who contribute to this alliance of business and the arts.

This season is supported in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts in Washington, D. C., a Federal agency created by Act of Congress in 1965.

One of Seattle's most esteemed chefs has created an imaginative and celebrated new dining oasis on the site of the city's oldest restaurant (1893). Informality and meticulous French cooking are combined with fine Gallic gusto, and patrons return again and again to savor everything from pate' appetizers, escargots, quiche Lorraine and boeuf bourguignon to delicate omelettes and Francois' masterful mousse au chocolat and his own Coupe Michelle. Intriguing wines. Menu changes every day. Open for luncheon, dinner, after-theatre supper. Mondays through Saturdays.

A CONTEMPORARY THEATRE (ACT) was organized to produce the important plays of our time while those plays have immediate meaning and impact. It was our belief that this growing metropolitan area should have the opportunity to see professional productions of important plays which are being seen in other major cities of Europe and America. We believed that the cultural and intellectual environment of our city would be enhanced by such an opportunity. In our sixth season, we can now point to dramatic proof that our belief was well founded, for our audience has grown from 7,000 during our first year to well over 30,000 during the past few seasons.

A NEW PLAY opens at ACT every two weeks this summer! We are proud and excited to be able to produce seven of the most fascinating plays in contemporary international theatre. We hope you will continue to . . .

THINK SUMMER AND ACT!

ROSENCRANTZ AND GUILDENSTERN ARE DEAD
THE BIRTHDAY PARTY by Harold Pinter JUNE 23 thru JULY 4	THE BALCONY by Jean Genet JULY 7 thru JULY 18	by Tom Stoppard JULY 21 thru AUGUST 1
THE CAUCASIAN CHALK CIRCLE by Bertolt Brecht AUGUST 4 thru AUGUST 15	THE PRIME OF MISS JEAN BRODIE by Jay Presson Allen AUGUST 18 thru AUGUST 29
ENDGAME by Samuel Beckett SEPT 1 thru SEPT 12	YOUR OWN THING by Hal Hester & Danny Apolinar SEPT 15 thru SEPT 26

Our ability to continue, to improve, and to increase our contribution to live in the Puget Sound area is directly related to our ability to generate direct financial help. Like every serious theatre in America and in Europe, ACT must rely on contributions to finance a sizeable portion of its budget. Within this program will be found a detailed listing of individuals who have become ACT "ANGELS" for 1970 . . . and a listing of those businesses and corporations who support ACT through the UNITED ARTS COUNCIL OF PUGET SOUND.

All contributions are vitally necessary . . . warmly appreciated . . . and tax-deductible.
